Subject: ACES 2025 Proposal Submission Decision

Dear Anita Woods,

Thank you for your proposal submission for the ACES 2025 Conference in Philadelphia, PA. We are pleased to inform you that your submission The Association Between the Counselor Educator Attachment Style and the Educational Relationship has been accepted as a 25 Minute Poster Session. This may or may not be your original requested session format.

As a reminder, please do the following:

· Communicate the proposal decision with your co-presenter(s), if applicable.

· Email acesconference@acesonline.net to accept your invitation to present in the format named above by May 5, 2025.

· Make any session edits, including presenters' names and order, between May 5 and May 30, 2025. Keep in mind that presenters can only appear in a maximum of two proposals. Due to character limits within the app, only six presenters can be listed on a session.

· If you believe your session would qualify for CRCC continuing education credit, please email ACES Executive Director Kelly Duncan at executivedirector@acesonline.net. ACES will apply to offer CRCC continuing education credit for the conference and wants to include qualifying sessions.

· Share any accessibility needs by May 30, 2025.

· Register for the ACES 2025 Conference, available starting May 15, 2025. Please verify that all listed presenters in your session have registered for the conference by August 1, 2025.

· Be available to present your session between October 9 – 12, 2025. Specific day/time session requests cannot be accommodated.

· Presenters agree to abide by the ACES Accessibility Best Practices, which will be shared with all presenters in Summer 2025.

We will contact you in the coming weeks to provide further details about the date and time of your session. We will also provide you with a link to register for ACES 2025 when it is available starting May 15, 2025. For additional information about ACES 2025, please visit the ACES 2025 Website.
